CHÂTEAU TOUR SAINT CHRISTOPHE 2020 - SAINT EMILION GRAND CRU

REVUE DE PRESSE

JAMES SUCKLING - 95-96

Full-bodied and creamy with lots of spice and walnut character.

Lovely softness and purity. Black fruit at the end. Very fine tannins. Well-integrated.

James Suckling Mai 2021

THE WINE CELLAR INSIDER - JEFF LEVE - 95-97

“Deep, and dark in color, and equally dark and deep in its fruit, the nose pops with perfectly ripe dark red and black fruits, licorice, smoke, cherry blossoms, crushed rocks and stones. The wine has depth, sensuality, luscious textures and layers of ripe, opulent fruits. The finish lingers with layers of black and red fruits with dark chocolate that feel as good as they taste. This could be the finest vintage of Tour Sant Christophe ever produced, and that is really saying something. The wine is made from blending 80% Merlot with 20% Cabernet Franc. You can age for 20-25 years. Or if you like, you can also enjoy this on the young side.” -Jeff Leve Mai 2021

ALEXANDRE MA - 94-96

«The low-key bouquet delivers infinite energies and strengths. I am instantly impressed by the grand and magnificent power on the entry, like having an invisible steel hiding behind the backbone. Thanks to the well-polished tannins and smooth body's texture, the body is still very balanced. This giant wine is not friendly to general consumers like Wagner's opera, but it is a special gift for all of Saint-Émilion's lovers.» Alexandre Ma Mai 2021

WWW.VVWINE.CH - 92-94

«Nez intense, fruité foncé, montre de la profondeur, une minéralité fraîche, réglisse, violettes, thé. Dans l'attaque puissante, montre des muscles, beaucoup de puissance, mais aussi une fraîcheur étonnante, les tanins sont encore sauvages, contre le fruit mûr, une grande acidité tire les saveurs de fruits dans la longue finale. J'aime ce 2020 un tantinet mieux que le grand 2018. Race et classe ; et à un prix raisonnable. Recommandé ! 2026-2040+ »

Adrian van Velsen Mai 2021
