

CHATEAU D'AIGUILHE

CASTILLON-CÔTES DE BORDEAUX

Revue de Presse / Press Review
Primeurs 2025

James Suckling – April 2026

93 – 94

A firm and fresh red with white pepper, salt and iodine that follow through to a medium body with linear tannins and a bright finish. Long finish

Bettane & Desseauve – Mai 2026

93 – 94

Le cassis et les fleurs poivrées dominent un nez particulièrement expressif. Structuré par des tannins enrobés, ce castillon avance avec précision dans un registre harmonieux et raffiné. Coup de cœur.

AMA – Alexandre Ma – April 2026

92 – 94

石灰岩给了 Château d'Aiguilhe 在2025年的底气。干旱对它几乎没有造成困扰。成熟的黑果香气依然，但被一股明亮的酸度托住，让整杯酒显得清透。粉笔灰质地的单宁数量充足，但得益于精细的萃取，没有多余的痕迹。这是一种在高温之中依然能保持干净表达的能力，是风土葡萄酒证明自己的时刻。

Decanter – April 2026

A fresh and engaging showing: a wet-stone note on the nose alongside bright red cherry fruit gives an immediate sense of lift. The palate packs plenty of juice, underpinned by lively acidity (pH 3.35) that keeps everything energetic, if not quite as seamlessly balanced as the best examples in this vintage that marry ripeness and freshness more completely. Still, a well-crafted wine with good vibrancy and charm - and more convincing than some peers in this price range, and an enjoyable expression overall. (Panos Kakaviatos)

Vinous – April 2026

91 – 93

The 2025 d'Aiguilhe offers up a heady concoction of red/purplish fruit, lavender, black pepper, rose petal, cinnamon, new leather and blood orange. There's gorgeous textural depth here, but also plenty of energy to complement the wine's fruit intensity and overall richness. The tannins will need a bit of time to soften. (Antonio Galloni)

Jeb Dunnuck – May 2026

91 – 93

Deep purple-hued, the 2025 Château D'Aiguilhe is based on 80% Merlot and 20% Cabernet Franc from very old vines and aging in 20% new oak. It has a classic limestone-driven profile in its red and black fruits, sappy flowers, and chalky minerality. On the palate, it's medium-bodied, with a pure, balanced, elegant mouthfeel, ripe tannins, and good acidity.

Yves Beck – Avril 2026

91 – 93

La fraîcheur des terroirs argilo-calcaires fait son effet, indéniablement, car ce sont les nuances crayeuses et les fruits frais qui sont mis en avant par le bouquet. Dense en attaque, le vin s'illustre par son énergie, par sa vitalité et par sa fraîcheur. Il pourra être apprécié dans sa jeunesse, mais il dispose des éléments nécessaires à de la garde... si l'on parvient à attendre, et je doute fortement de cela !

The Wine Cellar Insider – Jeff Leve – May 2026

93

Quite floral, and filled with sweet, ripe, red fruits, and a touch of licorice that creates the nose. On the palate, the wine is soft, supple, creamy, silky, and fresh, leaving you with more of those sweet, red fruits, plums, and a touch of salty cocoa in the finish. The wine is made from 80% Merlot and 20% Cabernet Franc.
